

Join POAC Autism Services as they

Present a

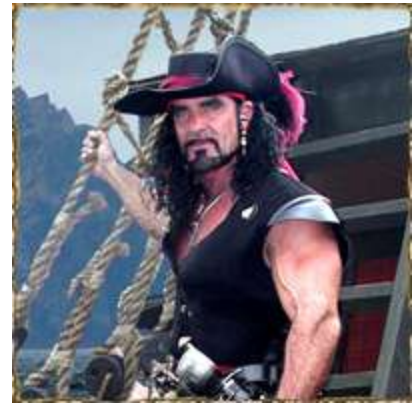

FREE Pirate & Princess Party

For Children with autism and their families

Sunday, August 22, 2010

11:00 am to 2:00 pm

Windward Beach, Brick, NJ

If you have ever wanted to hang out with pirates, learn how to wield a sword, or hear about their daring adventures, you and your family must not miss this event! Bring your own lawn seat, blanket, or beach chair to watch the Pirates in action. Snacks and souvenirs will be offered for purchase and the beach and playground are available if you would like to make a full day of it. The Pirates will be on hand before and after their 45 minute interactive show to meet and greet everyone. Come dressed as your favorite Pirate or Princess and don't forget the sun screen. This is another free recreation event for children with autism and their families brought to you by POAC. Registration is necessary; please complete this form to reserve your space!
